THE PROBLEM

As a disruptor in the mortgage marketplace, Own Up needed a top-tier Chief Growth Officer with customer acquisition competency in this unique product category. The ideal candidate needed experience in scaling 3-5x growth and building out a high functioning growth team while the company was keen on increasing the diversity of its team with this hire.

PLENTY'S SOLUTIONS

Using our intricate competency mapping and recruiting strategy, Plenty identified a target pool of candidates that precisely matched Own Up's niche requirements. Plenty was able to source a diverse pool of candidates and, in only 65 days successfully recruited an underrepresented candidate Own Up's Board described as "transformational".
